We had shared the happiness with all of you, when the 'Making an Impact' Article series hit the milestone of 100 articles and 200 articles. Today, let me share with you all, the joy of attaining a new milestone! Yes, our 'Making an Impact' Article series has reached its 500th episode! Through this article series, we are presenting the result of an exceptional teamwork i.e. Kudumbashree. This 'Making an Impact' Article Series reflects the results of hard work of each and everyone who are part of Kudumbashee network. Also, it is the result of success of the officials who extend full support to this three tier system. Through this series, we had shared about the progress of project implementation through Kudumbashree. We also highlighted those new ideas that are being conceived or implemented.

These articles are prepared and are taken to you all through another small team work. I provide the content of the articles to Ms. Chaithanya G and she completes the same by adding the basic details and data. She edits it, type it and select appropriate photos for the post. Ms. Manjari Asok is entrusted with the task of translating the articles into English. Mr. Sreebal uploads the articles in the website and sends the articles through various WhatsApp groups and other social media platforms. Mr. S. Arun prepare the posters for the article series whenever needed and design the articles (for website) and make the follow up reading possible.

From this series, we learnt about effective communication of our projects to the public. We were able to get the genuine feedback from the grass root level. Through this series, we got an additional feedback about the field reality and the issues in project implementation. We also got a detail picture of the issues in project implementation as we received genuine responses from all. On the basis of feedback, we were able to improve program implementation and correct mistakes. Our team is more than happy that, we are able to get more ideas, make more convergences possible and take the details of the activities of Kudumbashree to more people, through this 500 episode long series!

Some of our team members consider these articles as a recognition of their effort and success. This makes us very happy and proud. These posts are also an appreciation to all who give leadership to the various activities of Kudumbashree. It is a motivation and encouragement for the excellence of the teams. Further, through this article series a 'documentation' activity is also made possible. This documentation effort would help in knowing about the various activities of Kudumbashree during these years. All the 500 articles written until now are given in this link. It’s arranged in chronological order. Also in the next tab, articles are sorted subject wise. The link is :www.kudumbashree.org/pages/183#edpage-tab-7. Those who are interested may visit this link and go through the entire set of articles. On attaining this milestone of completing 500 articles, let me once again share the happiness of our documentation team, in presenting the activities of Kudumbashree team before all of you, through this 'Making an Impact' Article Series.
