Let me remind you all to become part of the fight against the spread of corona virus disease by practising this message.

We all are bound to maintain social distancing and act responsible to fight back the spread of corona virus disease.

Ensure togetherness by maintaining social distancing

Social distancing is a set of nonpharmaceutical infection control actions intended to stop or slow down the spread of a contagious disease.

www.kudikshere.org