Deen dayal Upadhyaya Grameen Kuashalya Yojana (DDUGKY): One concern raised by the CDS chairperson was that there are many deserving candidates in the general community, but because of minority/SC/ST quota many were not able to make benefit out of the scheme. It was communicated to her that a new scheme under Kerala Government; ‘Yuvakeralam’ soon to be launched, will cater to the needs of deserving youngsters in the BPL category.

The skilling programme implemented and monitored by Kudumbashree has benefitted a number of students in the Panchayath. Out of 204 students registered in the Napunya register 48 have enrolled in various courses, 35 candidates have completed the course, 31 appointed and 15 placed. The reason for poor conversion from registration to enrolment is because of the minority sub-category requirement in DDU-GKY and lack of training center within Kollam district.

On the agricultural front emphasis is given on fallow land cultivation. 38 JLGs are registered in the CDS. The output of the JLGs are sold in near by Panchayaths and also sold to community kitchen.

Most Satisfying Moment

The CDS person was of the opinion that there is no single moment to single out, but every moment shen unconditional love is expressed DFK beneficiaries, Snehita beneficiaries and elderly she feels contended and feel that ‘only that life matters a life which is spend for others’. She feels that everyone treat her as a part of their own family and there is acceptance everywhere she goes.

Learning

The way the Chairperson manages the CDS and the team was exceptional. She had only good words for everyone. The chairperson conveyed that she treats all 14 wards equally irrespective of whether it’s represented by an LDF, UDF or any other member of other party political lineage. This made me understand the importance of treating everyone equitably. She also sets a role model in reporting to work on time even during the pandemic times and is full of energy even at an age of 65. This shows us the importance of leading from the front and matching words with deeds. This is highly emulative. Another important trait was her solution centric approach when faced with problem. When she was faced with the problem of conducting meetings, instead of waiting for COVID to get over, she started Google Meet and when some members expressed their inability, the chairperson made arrangements for their training. This was yet another important learning.
