This is ‘Ente Kudumbashree’ of neighbourhood group members - Feel it from their own words

On Sunday, we explained about the video making and essay writing competitions organised in connection with the 22nd Anniversary of Kudumbashree. We also provided the link where all the videos received as entries are uploaded. Hope you would have watched it from the link: http://www.kudumbashree.org/pages/869. These videos are a reflection of the changes Kudumbashree had brought in their lives.

Out of these memoirs, the best essays were selected by the districts and were given for uploading in the website. You may read the uploaded articles from this link: http://www.kudumbashree.org/pages/872

Today, we will present and introduce the essays/ memoirs/ articles received as part of this competition. 162 articles were received by the District Mission Coordinators. These articles explain what Kudumbashree means to each of our members and the influence Kudumbashree hold in each of their lives. Many had wrote about the confidence provided by Kudumbashree helping them to step out of their houses, to the society.

Hope you all would read the memoirs written by Kudumbashree members elaborating about Kudumbashree and how they mark Kudumbashree in their lives. Also, please do let us know your reviews!
